A drink in a comfortable and friendly family atmosphere, large screen TV with Sky and ESPN, varied entertainment including discos with occasional karaoke and theme nights, all attractively priced. Just a few of the advantages of Club Membership which is available for a modest subscription.

In addition to social functions there are sports sections on offer. Members wishing to play any of the sports also pay a fee to the individual sports sections. Several of the sports sections compete in local leagues. There are also three all-weather tennis courts which are free of charge to members.

Ordinary Membership is available to members of the Local Authority and other public employees at a cost of just £20 per year. Subscriptions can be deducted from County Council and Aylesbury Vale District Council employees' salary at £1.25 per month.

Associate Membership, which includes the use of all facilities, is available to everyone at an annual subscription of £30.00. Children are covered by their parent's membership until they cease full-time education.
